

Evaluation Rubric of Didactic Instruction: Academic Setting

Please use the following key and check the box that reflects the degree to which the Nurse Educator Student has completed the following:

- 5 very high degree
- 4 high degree
- 3 somewhat high degree
- 2 moderate degree
- 1 somewhat low degree
- 0 very low degree

	F2F or Virtual- please indicate	5	4	3	2	1
1.	Demonstrates preparedness. Arrived/logged in early to prepare F2F or virtually ie.) setup room, power point, equipment, etc.	✓
2.	Professional attire, neat appearance	✓
3.	Clearly identifies learning objectives.	✓
4.	Content taught relates to learning objectives.	✓
5.	Teaching materials and technology utilized are varied and appropriately used.	✓
6.	Content taught is evidenced-based and reflects relevant nursing literature	✓
7.	Demonstrates appropriate time management	✓
8.	Appropriately gauges the audience, periodically checks in to determine need for content clarification	✓
9.	Utilizes teaching strategies to meet the various learning styles of the student	✓
10.	Presents content in a clear, organized, and understandable manner	✓
11.	Engages the students throughout the class	✓
12.	Knowledgeable regarding content being presented	✓
13.	Promotes an atmosphere conducive to learning	✓
14.	Maintains appropriate eye contact, does not read slides or notes	✓
15.	Projects voice with good fluctuation, not monotone	✓
16.	Demonstrates aptitude, ability, skill, and talent	✓
17.	Identifies intended audience and provides appropriate level of instruction ie). Jr, Sr, Sophomore OR RN's, new grads, PCA's etc.	✓
18.	Connects theoretical content with clinical practice	✓
19.	Offers time at the end for questions and responds appropriately	✓
20.	Concludes with an effective summary of content	✓

Comments:

TOTAL POINTS:

100

Signatures:

Nicole St. R.

Mentor

OC

Student

5/15/24

Date

5/15/24

Date